Deposed Prophet Interred During Pickpocket Panic, as Plots Brew.

Terrible Blizzard Precedes Funeral—Death Sermon "Dogs of Hell."

Over Dozen of Voliva's Dis- ciples Die—Two Yester- day in Great Agency.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, March 14.—The funeral of John Alexander Dowie, the deposed prophet of Zion, was held in Zion City today, and was quiet and unostentatious. A small portion of the magnificent choir that formerly officiated at the Tabernacle sang hymns.

The body was arrayed in the wonderful white robe which the deceased had worn since he assumed the title of "First Apostle of the Christian Church." The funeral oration was delivered by Attorney Barnes and the cortege was attended by hundreds of Zionists.

Chicago pickpockets, flocking to Zion in great numbers, caused a panic at the funeral of Dowie by robbing mourners and fighting with the police. A plot was also discovered to raid the tomb and decapitate Dowie to secure his brain.

A close guard will be maintained over the grave night and day. Since Dowie's death, more than a dozen of Voliva's followers and the bitterest opponents of Dowie have died. Two of them died today in great agony, and telegrams from various points tell of remarkable mortality among the Zionists opposed to the leader.

ZION IS AWED.
This morning a terrible blizzard raged in Zion, although there was no storm elsewhere in the vicinity. Seventy-five families today made preparations to move away from the doomed city. They were sorely disappointed because Dowie did not rise from his coffin, but believe he will materialize elsewhere, more powerful than ever, and summon his scattered followers.

Six weeks before he died, John Alexander Dowie prepared his own funeral sermon. The religious settlement is now torn asunder by religious factions. In an effort to bring the warring interests together Judge Barnes extolled the good qualities of the dead man.

The sermon prepared by Dowie was given out for publication. This sermon makes it plainly evident that Dowie did not forgive his enemies before he died, as he terms those who ousted him "Dogs of Hell."

His funeral sermon.
The sermon concludes as follows: "I shall return and with ruthless hand shall I exterminate the vipers and dogs of hell that now hold the high places in Zion. They dreamed, and in the greatness of their dreams they thought they had prevailed over the First Apostle."

"And now, priests, and elders of Aaron, I shall return to strike you. I shall return in another form, brighter and more beautiful and ten thousand times more terrible, to cut ye off in the midst of your aims, and to win back Zion for the truth and for them that held to the word and did no evil."

PRESIDENT PROPOSES FEDERAL FRANCHISE.

He Arranges Far-Reaching Programme to Show Railway Operators.

Cortelyou Pours Ninety-four Millions Into Circulation to Stem Slump of Stocks—No Failures Are Reported—Charge Is Made That Flurry Is Arranged to Discredit Administration—Confidence Is Returning.

TOPICAL POINTS OF STOCK FLURRY.

At the end of forty-eight hours slump is checked. President meets situation by fat-footed avowal for Federal franchises for interstate railroads. Secretary of Treasury puts $94,000,000 in circulation. Twenty-three leading stocks show shrinkage in quotations that approximate one billion. Administration believes situation has been arranged by financiers to discredit President's policies. Bankers are not alarmed at conditions at present. No failures of leading houses are reported as result of drop in prices.

President is ready to meet railroad men if they call on him. Meantime, he is eagerly consulting Governors, Senators and Representatives.

BIG STICK STILL WORKING.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, March 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Roosevelt will not only decline to mitigate the vigor with which the government is now enforcing the anti-trust laws and the new rate law against the railroads, but he will present to the railroads the following programme:

To immediately begin a campaign in favor of legislation providing for a Federal franchise law. To arrange for the issuance of licenses to corporations.

To squeeze the water out of stocks. This is what will be told the four railroad presidents when they have their conference, and make their appeal for relief from the raids of State Legislatures; for a letting-down in the enforcement of the anti-trust laws; for a statement from the President that the government is not going to enforce the anti-trust laws and the new rate law against the railroads.

SEEMS VIEW OF PUBLIC.
If the President finds that the public is with him on these questions, he will urge the enactment of additional legislation at the next session of Congress.

It is not known at the White House when the railroad magnates will arrive, but the President will be ready to meet them when they reach Washington. He will not lose any sleep if they do not come. He was requested to see them, and consented to do so. If they do not come the President will not send them invitations, as they are expected to take the initiative.

Railroad officials throughout the country are bringing pressure to bear on the Interstate Commerce Commission and urge them to endeavor to induce the President to issue some statement which will have the effect of restoring public confidence in railroad securities and putting a stop to hostile legislation by the States.

BIG FEDERAL CONTROL.
A. B. Stickney, president of the Chicago Great Western road, talked with the President today. Stickney reiterated to the President the views he has expressed for publication recently—to the effect that the control of railroads should be placed wholly in the hands of the Federal government and the States deprived of the power of enacting all sorts of laws. Stickney is putting his views into effect by requesting a decision of the State authorities of Minnesota on the ground that the State cannot interfere in the business of the road.

He has taken the case before the Federal courts and expects to have it carried to the United States Supreme Court. He expresses the opinion that the highest court of the land will put an entirely new phase on the railroad situation so far as State control is concerned.

FAVORS CENTRALIZATION.
Stickney has long been a supporter of the railroad views of the President, and believes that the Federal government should be given the greatest latitude in its control of these powerful corporations.

Gov. Dineen has been conducting a fight for better railroad laws in his State, and has fully informed himself as to the needs of supervision and regulation by the States as well as by the Federal government.

The President will agree with the railroad presidents that more centralization of the government power over carriers is desirable, and they will agree that the Federal government is the place where that power ought to be lodged. He will doubtless admit that the activities of State Legislatures as to the needs of supervision and regulation have been unfortunate, tending to embarrass and complicate the efforts at solution of the general problem.

VALLEY IS FLOODED.

Water Wall Sweeps Three States.

Many Lives Lost, Thousands Rendered Homeless by Flood.

Industrial Plants Shut Down and Damage Runs Up Into Millions.

Thirty-Mile Ice Gorge Breaks and Drives Down Upon Pittsburgh.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PITTSBURGH, March 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Serious flood conditions prevail tonight in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Eastern Ohio. Dispatches from all over the stricken section tell of swollen streams and of death, damage and privation, as a result of the flood. Fourteen deaths are reported from the region around Pittsburgh, and three fatalities have occurred at Zanesville, O.

Over 100,000 men now here have been thrown out of work and are idle, as a result of the rising wall of water and thousands of families have been rendered homeless and forced to flee to the uplands.

The damage near Pittsburgh is estimated at over $10,000,000, and at Springfield, O., the loss is believed to be more than $500,000. At Conneville, W. Va., the damage to the coke region is estimated at $2,000,000, and over 100,000 persons in that district are temporarily out of employment.

The Westinghouse works, employing 30,000 hands, are shut down, and the damage to machinery is estimated at $2,000,000. All the mines along the Ohio river are closed. The flood has reached the city of Pittsburgh, and fully 15,000 men are idle. Hundreds of stores and business houses in the downtown section are partly submerged and have closed their doors. The flood directly affects over 250,000 people in the city.

The situation in Pittsburgh and vicinity is serious. The flood is the worst the city has ever known. The whole downtown district is under water, business is practically stopped, all the industrial plants along the river are closed, and traffic between Pittsburgh and Allegheny and on all the local railroads is at a standstill. Hundreds of people are marooned in Pittsburgh. Restaurants and hotels have been besieged by persons unable to reach their homes.

Telegraph and telephone service is crippled. Men are pumping water from the dynamo-room of the Western Union Telegraph Company in the center of the business section.

SUBURBAN SUFFER.
In the suburbs of Aspinwall, Sharpsburg, Acton and Millvale, over 500 families are living in the second stories of their homes. Many houses have been undermined, foundations weakened and are in danger of collapsing. The greater portion of Monongahela, Pa., is under water.

Late this afternoon the thirty-mile ice gorge broke, and is now moving toward the city. The immense gorge in the Clarion River has also started down stream.

The death attributed to the flood include the three trainmen who lost their lives by the collapse of the Harpersville bridge yesterday and two men drowned last night when the towboat Cruiser capsized in the Ohio River.

The other fatalities reported are: LLOYD WETLAND, aged 30, drowned in Laurel Hill Creek, near Somerset; GEORGE JOHNSON, aged 5 years, drowned at Millvale; ANNIE SHULTZ, aged 7, drowned in Blue Baker Creek, near Hastings.

Already the loss from the closing of mills and manufacturing plants and damage to property is estimated at over a million dollars. The flood has reached Penn avenue and Sixth street in this city and all the Point district was inundated. The lowlands of Allegheny were caught unaware. The greatest excitement prevails and scores of people were taken from their homes in shifts.

Duquesne Way, Pennsylvania avenue and Liberty street, running parallel with the Allegheny River, are submerged to a depth of many feet. Hundreds of business houses located in this district are water is up to the second floor.

The Galesy, Belasco, Alvin and Bijou theaters are surrounded with water and will be unable to open for several days. The guests of the Colonial, Lincoln and Anderson hotels are either marooned or compelled to use shifts to and from the buildings. Trolley service between Pittsburgh and Allegheny was suspended early today and tonight at the Pennsylvania depot are thousands of excited people trying to board trains for Allegheny and other suburbs. Trolley, elevated and telephone service is demoralized in different sections. Every tributary along the upper

GAME LAWS LID LIFTS AND FISHERS ARE READY.

Will Pounce on Monster Jam of Truckee River Trout and Bring Tons of the Speckled Beauties to Tackle the Palates of Waiting Restaurant Patrons.

RENO, March 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The fish season opens tonight at 12 o'clock, and from general indications there will be more than two tons of the speckled beauties of the Truckee in the city for sale tomorrow morning when the cafes and restaurants open.

More than one hundred fishermen who fish for the market left the city this afternoon for the Derby dam, where there are thousands of Truckee River trout jammed in a monster school below the big cement dam, and they can scoop them out with nets.

The fish are unable to come further up the river, as the government, in building its huge dam, failed to provide it with proper fishways, although they are provided for by law, and the fish trapped below it are waiting to be slaughtered.

DISCUSS VISIT TO WASHINGTON.
MAGNATES ARE UNSETTLED AS TO THEIR POLICIES.

Four Great Railroad Chiefs Have Not Yet Made Definite Plans for Conference With President Are Not Adopted, Nor Is Visit to White House Set.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
NEW YORK, March 14.—It was stated in New York Railroad circles tonight that the presidents of several trunk line roads probably will decide tomorrow upon their plans for a trip to Washington, to consider the situation with the President.

President McCrea of the Pennsylvania and President Mellen of the New York, New Haven and Hartford, were in New York today, but returned to their homes. President Hughton of the Northwestern is in Chicago, but is expected to leave for New York some time tomorrow. President Newman of the New York Central has not yet gone to Washington.

It is thought there will be an interchange of communications between the presidents relative to the trip, and though it was not decided upon positively, probably they would see the President.

The President, it was said, has not sent formal invitation, but leaves it with the magnates to decide whether they will follow Morgan's plan.

More Than Thousand Claims from Catastrophe.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
CHICAGO, March 14.—In a report filed today in the Circuit Court by the State Bank of Chicago, as receiver for the Traders' Insurance Company, it is shown that claims resulting from the San Francisco earthquake and fire aggregating $2,000,000 have been adjusted for $2,785,523. The claims adjusted number 1247. There are still outstanding about 154 others. The largest adjustment was on a policy for $25,000, held by George Troy, No. 1078 Bush street. On this $25,737 was allowed. The court is asked to sanction the adjustments and to allow thirty days for applications by the remaining claimants for a settlement.

The State Bank was appointed a receiver for the insurance company last summer following the earthquake.

BREAST, March 14.—There was another accident to a French warship off this port today. During torpedo exercises the coast defense ship Fulminant was struck and seriously damaged on the water line by a torpedo. Collision mats were at once applied in the vessel's side, and she was towed into port in a sinking condition.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS TO HELP.
Secretary Cortelyou today directed the collectors of customs to deposit their receipts in national depositories. The receipts amount to approximately $2,000,000 a day, and in ten days $20,000,000 will be placed in the banks to help relieve the situation. This plan will be continued indefinitely, and will give much relief to the market.

Secretary Cortelyou Throws His Influence in Favor of Stability by Depositing Customs Receipts in Banks, Anticipating Interest on Bonds and Deferring Collections.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, March 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou today went to the relief of Wall street and the money market by taking action which will put about $74,000,000 in circulation, and this, with the $20,000,000 which Secretary Cortelyou yesterday decided not to withdraw from circulation, makes approximately $94,000,000 of government funds which will be used to relieve the financial stringency and stop the incipient panic. This action is believed to be the result of the visit of James Speyer, the New York banker, yesterday, when the situation in the street was explained.

After the stock market closed, Secretary Cortelyou issued an official statement which shows that national banks will be allowed further time in which to retire circulation issued under the terms of the circular of the Treasury Department of October 22 last. It was originally intended to retire this circulation during March and October, 1907. This action will relieve the stringency to the extent of $13,000,000.

WEDDING BELLS
FOR A. ATTELL.Runaway Couple Married at Santa Ana.Featherweight Champion Denies Story.Abe Says He Was Spiced at Chicago Last Year.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SANTA ANA, March 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A man giving his name as Abraham Attell, and posing as the featherweight champion prize fighter, today became a benedict. At a few minutes after 4 o'clock, he was married in the office of the County Clerk to Miss Elizabeth Egan of Los Angeles.

Abe and his bride-to-be arrived here on an electric car, and went at once to the courthouse, where a license was issued them by County Clerk W. E. Williams. Justice of the Peace Ed Smithwick was summoned at Abe's request and the wedding couple joined hands with County Clerk Williams, Deputy County Clerk J. E. Burke, County Auditor Cal. D. Lester, and J. W. Flagg, a real estate man, as audience and witnesses.

"I suppose this will be in the papers tomorrow morning," said County Auditor Lester, who had guessed that the couple had come to the Grana Green of Southern California, as many others do, to escape the notoriety of detection.

"It is going in the papers you won't get married," quickly declared the blue-eyed girl. But she did. Abe and his bride took an early evening car back to the city.

The license is issued as Abraham Attell and Elizabeth Egan, both natives of California, both residents of Los Angeles, both aged 22. The marriage certificate is to be returned to Abe Attell, Sherman House, Chicago, Ill.

"Well, this is not as bad as going twenty rounds," declared Abe, as the witnesses shook hands with him and his bride. It is a custom of the County house clerks at Santa Ana to take advantage of the marriage of runaway couples from Los Angeles by insisting on shaking hands with both bride and groom. The "boys" took full advantage of the opportunity yesterday. The woman who is said to have become Mrs. Attell at first held back, but when she saw she could not escape the ordeal, she went through the extra ceremony with grace.

Attell asked particularly that nothing be said of the wedding, as he did not want his friends in Los Angeles to know of it until after he had gone East. He desired that the newspaper correspondents be kept in the dark regarding the marriage.

The ceremony was performed without the kindling of a torch. The license was issued the County Clerk asked each of the contracting parties in turn if they had ever been married before, and each answered in the negative.

DENIES THE STORY.

WAS ALREADY MARRIED.
Abe Attell denied emphatically, last night, that he had been married at Santa Ana. He declared that he was married July 25, 1906, at Chicago, and that his wife's maiden name was Mrs. Evans. He said that he had been at the races all afternoon and won $300.

NELSON IS BLUFFING.

Attempts to Prevent Gans from Dictating Terms as He Did Himself.
FIGHT.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, March 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The champion lightweight boxer, Joe Gans, will have to get busy if he desires to meet "Batting" Nelson in another contest. So says the Dane. He declares that he will not let Gans dictate any terms to him. If the colored champion wants to meet him he will have to come in at 125 pounds ring-side.

Gans will have to come to conclusions in a hurry as Nelson asserts that if he does not do so within a month or so he will have to wait a year. Nelson is planning to erect an amusement park in Hegewisch this summer, which he says will take up all of his time. He is combating the plan to change the name of the town.

THOMAS TO EUROPE.

HOPES TO MEET BRITISHERS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, March 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Joe Thomas, the California pugilist, who recently put a dent in the championship aspirations of Money Melody, the New England boxer, has about made up his mind to go to England, with a view to meeting some of the British boxers. Thomas says he is unable to prevail on any of the American boxers to meet him. He has repeatedly challenged Tommy Ryan and Hugo Kelly, but neither has paid the slightest attention.

GOTCH BEATS ROONEY.

Chicago's Wrestling Policeman Rooney Succumbs to Champion's Fatal Toe Hold.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, March 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Champion Frank Gotch settled Policeman John Rooney's championship aspirations tonight at the Coliseum, by winning two straight falls, the first in 15:30 on his famed toe hold, and the second in 17:46 on a combined grasping and hammerlock. Gotch showed himself clever and fast, worrying the policeman and testing him around occasionally for the fun of the thing. Gotch dodged one of Rooney's early rushes and threw the policeman the width of the ring. Gotch then tried a hammerlock. Rooney cleverly broke free. Finally Gotch flashed his trump card and Rooney found himself in the clutches of a famous toe hold and his shoulders were to the mat.

In the preliminary, Demetral, the Greek, defeated Poma, the French champion.

China Defeats Pomeria.
CHINA, March 14.—In an exciting game of basketball between teams of the Pomeria High School and the China High School, played here this afternoon, the China team won by a score of 15 to 11.

GIANTS WIN AGAIN.

Beat Los Angeles Team by Close Score
Owing to Timely Number of Two-Base Hits.

New York and Los Angeles played another practice game of ball at the Chutes grounds yesterday, and the locals lost again and this time by a 4 to 2 score. It was a cracking good game from the start and the Giants won by hard batting when hits meant runs. Los Angeles tried out a new shortstop named Plake and he made a very good impression. The Giants scored two runs in the first inning off Bergeman, Devlin, Seymour and Bowserman making successive two-base hits. The fifth inning string of hits for McGinnity and was soaked with a pitched ball, Shannon doubled to center and then Burke scored both Strang and Shannon with a double to left.

For Los Angeles, Carlisle opened the fourth inning with a triple to center and scored on Brashers' single to right. Dillon singled to left and then Cravath forced Brashers at third. Dillon was out, but the Giants scored. Cravath scored on Smith's single to center. Carlisle scored the final run for the locals in the eighth.

NOTHING SACRED TO UNIONISM.

ARROGANT STAND AT CHURCH CORNER-STONE LAYING.

Jacob H. Schiff, the Financier, Compelled to Be Sworn in a Member of the Mason's Union Before He Could Lay the Corner-stone of New Church.

The arrogant manner in which union leaders emphasize their determination that nothing shall prevail against the union movement was well illustrated recently in New York on the occasion of the laying of the corner-stone of a new church. The business agent of the Masons' Union stated that "The church will never be finished if I am not on hand; or, if not I some other representative of the union. Every man on the job will quit if a non-union man puts a trowel into mortar on this job." It had been proposed that Jacob H. Schiff, the head of the financial firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., should lay the corner-stone of the new edifice, and the announcement of this fact led to the pronouncement of the union as mentioned above. The only way in which the event was gotten over was by having Mr. Schiff sworn in as a member of the union. Speaking of this incident, The Open Shop says: "That Mr. Schiff consented to any such proceedings is, it is to be presumed, attributable wholly to the fact that he did not wish to embarrass the organization whose church was under construction.

"Is it not a rather remarkable thing when one stops to consider that it was deemed necessary to submit to such a piece of nonsense as having Mr. Sc... become a member of the union before he was allowed to nominally lay the corner-stone of the church?"

"And, too, is it not rather a serious sign that such an arbitrary thing is submitted to without any protest, and the news of it is made public without any comment at all on the principles involved in acceding to the demand?"

"A great majority of the people living in the United States have not, and will not subscribe to the theory put forth by organized labor that only union men are entitled to work; but every now and then when this proposition is plainly put straight to some people, it has their indorsement. They consent to it merely because they would rather cancel, for the time, principles involving the freedom of everybody in the United States than they would have a little row about it."

"It is just such action as this, when taken in regard to some workman who has to obtain a living, that has led to the formation of employers' associations all over the country, and it is discouraging to those who would like to see equitable principles established, to realize that the union and their leaders show, when the occasion arises, so hopelessly little thought."

A REALLY interesting and informative article about the life of St. Fausta, will appear in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday.

A Warm Poem.

"Yes," drawled the rural editor, as he sat in his yellow corob, "we found this pretty cold world, young fellow, and we received your poem, but now we find it very much warmer."

"Ah, it warmed your hearts!" cried the bard, rapturously.

"Yes, it warmed us all over. You see, we passed it on the window when you had cut it."—Chicago News.

Last week's record of failures in municipal ownership includes an important case in Bath. The city authorities there voted 42 to 2 to sell the municipal electric plant, which has been a failure, to a private syndicate. The transaction means the immediate reduction of the local rate of taxation.

There are only $25,000 shares at each among which to divide these profits from an invention that everyone has no competition.

THE ONLY ONE THINKING OF IT! And the best part of it all that you now have the opportunity. Sharing in the profits of a profitable business without any investment. PERHAPS IT IS NOT LET THIS ONE ESCAPE! ANYWAY DO BUY SHARES NOW IN THE COMPANY BEFORE THEY GO UP TO $100 EACH. WHILE THEY LAST. SOME DAY THEY WILL BE WORTH MORE. MORE THAN YOU EVER DREAMED OF. They cannot help but.

SOME PEOPLE THINK THAT A SHARE SELLING AT $70 WILL SOME DAY BE WORTH $200 AND MAYBE MORE. ANOTHER THINKS IT'S WORTH TEN OR TWENTY TIMES AS MUCH AS IT'S NOW SELLING FOR. Besides you have

dividends on your share. One dollar invested in hundreds of other inventions is now worth from $16 to $200. The value of your stock will not grow in the same proportion. THE ARTICLE MADE BY ME HAS BEEN REPRODUCED IN MORE PEOPLE THAN ANY OTHER INVENTION EVER PUT ON THE MARKET.

It is too tough to start business without money. In fact, it is so difficult to get started that there will be no more for sale. There will be no more for sale. There will be no more for sale. COCKLE-BURRS CAUSED RUIN.

Ranches Torn by Runaway of Los Angeles River.

Rampage Due to Natural Dam of Heavy Plans.

Fields Cut Up, Schoolhouse Abandoned, no Roads.

Farmers living between Bell Station and Downey will meet tomorrow to discuss cockle-burrs and water. Both are vital to them now.

Despised cockle-burrs, irritating little pests of nature, whose highest mission generally is to snarl up the tails of horses, have, during the past two weeks risen to the position of a destroying force. Because of them, Los Angeles River is now known where it has no business to be. Out

FINDS FATHER, BUT CORPSE.

Girl Discovers Parent in Accident Victim.

Knew Not His Whereabouts for Many Years.

Passed His Store Often, Didn't Recognize.

Miss Jane Beamer of Long Beach, now 29 years of age, has discovered her father, whom she had not seen since she was a little child—but she found him cold in death.

Yesterday Miss Beamer sat in the assembly room at Fresno Brothers' undertaking establishment on South Figueroa street, and listened with tearful eyes and tense expression as witness told the coroner's jury how Frank O. Beamer, her father, came to his death in an automobile accident Tuesday night on Fifth street.

The thought of some time meeting her own father had frequently come to Miss Beamer's mind for years. She had pictured to herself that meeting, and wondered as to its possibilities of time and place; but the reality was stranger and sadder than any suggestion she ever had.

And, by a freak of the fates, Miss Beamer had often passed directly in front of the place of business of her father in this city for the past three years—had doubtless often looked in his face—and never realized that she

Long Beach for the inquest, as a mark of respect to the parent she had not seen for so many years, was very recent regarding this strange meeting; but her step-father, R. E. Blair, told of the peculiar circumstances, as he waited at the funeral parlors for the inquest to begin.

"Frank Beamer and I were school boys together," said he. "We were raised in the same place, back in Illinois. He was born and raised in Beaverville, Lee county; and there I spent my younger years."

"He and his wife separated, and I married her. They had a little girl, 4 or 5 years old. She came with me and her mother to California, and never saw her father since, until she heard that he was dead in Los Angeles."

"We came here sixteen years ago; and we went on a ranch down at Downey. About three years ago we moved to Long Beach, where we now reside."

"We never knew of Beamer's coming to California. In some way we had heard that he had married again. The other day I picked up a Los Angeles paper, and the first thing that I read was an account of this automobile accident. The name of Frank O. Beamer struck me at once as that of my wife's first husband. We decided to make an investigation, and I came up to the city to make inquiries. I was soon convinced that Beamer was my old schoolmate, and the father of my step-daughter."

Miss Beamer then came to Los Angeles and went to see the widow of her father, and later view all that remained of him.

Beamer leaves a small property, a residence lot in the southern part of the city and a small stock of merchandise at his place of business on Fifth street, where he conducted a little fruit stand and confectionery shop.

Mrs. Beamer is almost prostrated by the death of her husband. She was unable to appear as a witness, at the inquest.

Blair said, yesterday, that many times within the two years since Beamer had been located with his fruit stand on East Fifth street, he and members of his family had walked past the place on their way to and from the Arcade station; but that while he had

beheld the parent of whom she so frequently thought.

DOUBLE SURPRISE.
There was a double surprise in this case. The present Mrs. Beamer, widow of the accident victim, was startled, yesterday, to hear that a woman had appeared who claimed to be the daughter of her dead husband. Never before had she heard of this daughter. It is said that she had been unaware of a previous marriage.

But at the hour of trial, when the inquest was in progress, the elder woman was supported and comforted by the just-discovered daughter of her husband.

Frank O. Beamer was the man who was struck by an automobile driven by W. P. Young, as he was taking R. H. Ingram, general superintendent of the Southern Pacific Railroad, and three ladies, to the Arcade depot, to catch the Owl train for San Francisco.

The accident happened in front of Beamer's place of business, No. 208 East Fifth street. The testimony yesterday showed that Beamer, who was on a Brooklyn-avenue car east-bound, got off at the corner of Fifth street and Third avenue, just as the Ingram automobile was reaching the same locality.

Witnesses testified that Beamer seemed confused when he saw the auto approaching, and that after turning each way he started forward toward the sidewalk, and went directly in front of the oncoming machine.

Young testified that he had shut off the power of his machine as he saw the old man alighting, but that the wheels of the auto struck a wet spot on the pavement and the heavy machine slid ahead, beyond his control, until the man was struck and run over. He testified, as did several other witnesses, that the machine "was stopped within a very few feet from the place where the man was struck, when both Ingram and Young hurried back to give assistance to their victim."

Other testimony showed that Beamer was very near-sighted and this doubtless contributed to the fatal accident. He died at the Emergency Hospital without having recovered consciousness after he was struck.

The jury last evening brought in a verdict that Beamer came to his death from being struck by an automobile, but completely exonerating the chauffeur, W. P. Young.

Miss Beamer, who came up from seen the old man at the place, never a thought had entered his mind that the man was one whom he knew, the companion of his boyhood days, and the father of his own step-daughter.

CONSIDINE DIRECTS.
Henry Russell Signs Contract for Next Year, His Tour to Be Managed by Vaudeville Impresario.

Henry Russell closed a contract with John Conidine last night for the entire next season, by which the vaudeville impresario will direct the tour of Russell's opera company throughout the United States.

To opera-lovers this is indeed welcome news, for the well-known business enterprise of Conidine, coupled with the artistic genius of Henry Russell, promises results of magnitude and solatry heretofore observed only in New York.

Mr. Russell's first promise was for at least two weeks of grand opera in Los Angeles next winter, and, if possible, a whole month in the south-west, with Los Angeles as headquarters. At the close of his present season, early in the summer, Mr. Russell will return at once to Europe, where he will equip his aggregation for next year's work.

Last night's "Bohème," at the Auditorium, was a repetition in popular and artistic success of the previous evening. Scores of people, willing to pay any price for seats, were turned away from the box office before the curtain rose. Tonight Miss Nielsen's pretty triumph of last year, "Norina," in "Don Pasquale," will be repeated as the first half of the evening's entertainment. The programme will conclude with "Pagliacci," in which Russell, a new actor, will be heard. Galop will appear as Tonto, and Miss Fely Derrera will impersonate Nedda.

Tomorrow afternoon "Giocanda" will be heard again, with the cast of the coming night. In the evening all the stars will appear, and the bill—a complete list of the evening's entertainment—will be made up of the second act of "Traviata," the second act of "Lucia," and the second act of "Carmen."

Miss Nielsen has shown especial kindness in appearing both tomorrow afternoon and night. The high notions of primadonnas do not appear to append to her, for she is at once full of jolly good will toward her fellow artists and courtesy and consideration toward her public.

DAWSON ARRESTED; PRISONER IN BED.

The Former Manager of the Hoegge Company Declares His Innocence of Payroll-Stealing Charge—Gold Is Found in His Overcoat.

DOUGLAS DAWSON, former general manager of the William H. Hoegge Company, was arrested yesterday afternoon. He is accused of stealing the payroll of the company, which disappeared from the office two weeks ago. Saturday, Dawson was taken to the Central Station in an ambulance, and was placed in the women's ward of the Receiving Hospital, where he is held a prisoner. The equivalent of the money was found in his overcoat.

He stoutly maintained his innocence. His wife arrived at the station soon after her husband was taken there. She was admitted and went to his bedside.

Prostrated with nervous shock, Dawson greeted her as she rushed hysterically to him. They wept together for some moments, and then Mrs. Dawson turned tragically from her accused husband and declared her belief in his innocence.

"My husband is being persecuted and I believe him innocent of any crime," she said.

While his wife talked, Dawson raised himself on his cot and sought to quiet her. Tears streamed down his cheeks as he bade her be of good cheer. He assured her that all will be right in the end, and spoke confidently of his early deliverance from prison.

"I did not steal that money," said Dawson. "As God is my judge I am innocent of what they accuse me. This accusation is almost more than I can bear."

After making this statement Dawson was for a moment overcome. He buried his face in his pillow and sobbed aloud. His wife urged him to say no

NEW FACTORY, NEW TOWN.
Demolished Alcohol Plant to Go Up at Carterville, in the San Gabriel Valley.

It is reported work soon will be begun in San Gabriel Valley. The new townsite of Carterville, a mile and a quarter south of the San Gabriel Mission, on the Covina electric line.

The Southern California Distilling Company, which almost took up a location on the Santa Fe Railroad, southeast of Los Angeles, about six months ago, complete details of which project, with an illustration of the factory, were printed in The Times, is the concern interested. It has been led to locate in Carterville for several reasons, principal of which is the fact that raw material, consisting of corn, oranges, potatoes, sugar beets, etc., are more easily obtained over the electric roads than by the freight lines of the steam railroads. The plant is to occupy about eight acres, near the center of the new town. The company also will build a paint and varnish factory, it is claimed.

Carterville is said to be one of the most advantageously located town-sites in San Gabriel Valley. The new electric line will run directly through it. Huntington will build a pretty cottage. There is said to be an abundant of water. Schools are near.

"THE CHRIST IN ART."
Hector Alliot, the well-known artist, delivered his lecture, "The Christ in Art," yesterday afternoon before an audience made up of the members of the French Art Club and its friends, that comfortably filled Blanchard Hall.
Thrown on the canvas were reproductions of some of the masterpieces of representations of Christ—from the frescoes of the catacombs, the ancient mosaics, the early and late pensance up to the present time of Kohn-sen Cox. Will Low and the pictures of our own day. Most of the depic-tures were from the representations less familiar to the average art student, purposefully so, as Alliot explained, in order that the lecture might be an education as well as an entertainment. One of the pictures representing the Trinity was from a chapel in one of our California missions, which in the eye of the artist, was deemed of sufficient beauty and value to take rank with the 144 selected to portray the artistic conception of the Divine.

Dr. Henry Van Dyke, whose resignation from the Princeton faculty was recently announced, has withdrawn his resignation in response to the overwhelming demand from the officials,
alumni and students of Princeton.

Saturday's Dinner

Baked 24 hours—with young pig pork, seasoned with fine herbs
PERHAPS you've eaten beans from an old-fashioned New England oven. You must have, if you've had a New England, Saturday-night dinner—with its rich baked beans, steaming hot, and fairly spicy in their goodness—and its crisp pork, tender from the hours of baking it has received.

Since then that dinner has been a memory. You've had baked beans—but what a difference! Only the name was there.
We've got the real baked beans for you Saturday—"Dixie Baked Beans—Boston style"—the real old-fashioned kind—baked after an old New England recipe—not an experiment, but the real thing. A toothsome dinner for you Saturday night. Inexpensive, too. Full quart only 20c.

SAYS THIS RELIEVES BACKACHE.

A well-known authority says that Backache is often Nature's finger signal which notifies the sufferer that the kidneys are sick.

The following simple home-made mixture is said to relieve backache and cleanse and build up the kidneys. If taken before the stage of Bright's disease: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime.

A well-known local druggist is authority that these ingredients are mainly of vegetable extraction and harmless to use, and can be obtained at small cost from any good prescription pharmacy. Those who think they have kidney trouble or suffer with lame back or weak bladder, should give this prescription a trial, as no harm can possibly follow its use, and it is said to do wonders for some people.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, the bride entered the drawing-room on her father's arm and was joined by the groom. She wore an exquisite imported costume, white, maquette cloth trimmed with Duchess lace and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her only jewelry consisted in a diamond necklace, the gift of the groom. After the solemn vows had been taken the entire company sat down to breakfast. The place cards were ornamented with orange blossoms and these fragrant flowers adorned the table together with fruits and dainties. The wedding favors consisted of golden slippers filled with rice. At 4 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Neustadt left in their automobile for a two weeks' trip and will be at their home, No. 2515 Wilshire boulevard after May 1. They were the recipients of many elegant gifts, the most noteworthy being valuable bonds given by Mrs. Neustadt, who is also building a house for the young couple in Los Angeles. Col. Green gave his daughter a substantial check and will furnish her new home.

Mrs. G. G. Green gave them a handsome silver service set, and the groom's grandfather besides a handsome check, presented the young couple with a case of table silver of great elegance.

The bride's going away gown was a tailor-made costume of gray cloth and she wore a Veil hat to correspond in color. The bride is one of the groom's most beautiful and popular society girls of the younger set and there will be numerous elegant functions given in her honor upon her return.

The marriage was solemnized in Los Angeles rather than at the home of the bride, as a result of the groom's mother, who is convalescing from an operation but recently performed. Those who witnessed the wedding were Col. and Mrs. G. G. Green, Mrs. Neustadt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grattan, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Holmes, Mrs. Edward Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. John Twining Holmes, and Miss Angie Holmes.

Mrs. Minnan's Luncheon.

Mrs. Marshall M. Minnan of Dun- kirk, N. Y., was hostess at a very beautiful luncheon given yesterday at Hotel Van Nuys. Lilies of the valley and maidenhair ferns were combined with charming grace with pale green tulle bows and fetching knots. badly injured man got down himself and asked Roberts to pull his shoe off the left foot, for he said the foot was broken. Roberts wanted to cut the shoe, but Taylor finally made him pull it off.

The patrol wagon and several ambulances went to the wreck. A special engine and car was sent from the Salt Lake depot. Espinosa, Guzman, Taylor and Pettit were taken first to the Receiving Hospital. Foreman Hitt was injured but little and went to his home.
Basanta, Molera and Albo were sent to the California Hospital, and later to the California Hospital for the Receiving Hospital to be sent from the Receiving Hospital to the home.

The explosion was forward and backward, the greater force being in front. The "front door" of the engine was wrecked from its hinges and tumbled on the car of ties and the engine jumped forward with the shock and wedged itself into the ties. The track was not torn up and neither the engine or the flat cars were derailed.

engine was covered with soot, and wa-

BRIDGE IS CONDEMNED.
Buena Vista Street Structure Closed to Railway Traffic and Passengers Transferred.

Through traffic was cut off between the main part of the city and Gar-vanza by way of Buena Vista street and Dayton avenue shortly after noon yesterday, when it was discovered that the railway bridge at Buena Vista street connecting with Pasadena avenue across the Los Angeles River was unsafe.

The railway company was notified,
and as was also Street Superintendent D.
K. Edwards. The latter hurried to the spot in an automobile, and had the bridge closed. Later it was officially condemned, and will practically have to be rebuilt. This bridge was built in 1902, and one line of cars only ran over it, the old Daily-street line. Within the past two years the traffic over this bridge has increased in a way never intended or suspected by the builders, and for some time motor-men have been running their heavily-laden cars across the bridge, slowly, and with considerable nervousness, as it has been very shaky.

Some of the supporters have given away, and yesterday it was stated that sections of the bridge have sunk from one foot to a foot and a half. It is not better than the foot in the river has had much to do with the weakening of the structure, as the uprights are on concrete foundations, except for this the bridge would have been washed out long ago.

Yesterday all passengers were transferred from the Buena Vista cars, which were caught the other side of the bridge to Buena Vista street, and had to walk across the foot bridge. The foot bridge is also reported to be in need of repairs.

WAS IT INCENDIARY.
Fire at Los Angeles School of Art and Design Does Considerable Damage.

Fire threatened the Los Angeles
School of Art and Design yesterday morning. Damage amounting to $600 resulted from the blaze, which originated in the Melcor apartments, adjoining the school, corner of Sixth and Alvarado streets. The police believe the fire was of incendiary origin.

Evidence that the fire had been started in the cracks in front of the building, where the fire first started, is said to have been found. The flames are greedily along the walls of the shell-like structure, as they mounted from the tailor shop of G. C. Myers to the apartments above.

Mrs. George Cummings, her daughter, Miss Grace Cummings, and her son, Albert Cummings, occupy the apartments over the tailor shop. The young woman was first to discover the flames, and she immediately telephoned her brother, who is night clerk for Wells-Fargo at the Arcade Depot.

No alarm was turned in until Cummings arrived from the Wells-Fargo office. He rode out on a street car, and the place was enveloped in dense smoke when he arrived. He immediately turned in an alarm.

When the fire department arrived the flames were getting great headway,
and it seemed that not only the Macleod apartments, but the art school building would be consumed. Strenuous efforts on the part of the firemen kept the flames in the lower portion of the building.

Stung.
"You never rebuked me in this way
before," remarked the tearful Boston child as his mother removed her slipper.

"This," replied the fond parent, "is what is technically known as a stinging rebuke."

And a moment later the youthful victim vociferously admitted the appropriate character of the expression.

Beverly Hills

With customary progressiveness Los Angeles has responded to the demand, and supplied suburban subdivisions that rank with any in America, culminating in point of luxury and conveniences with the palatial district known as Beverly Hills.

The success of such a district was assured from the start, but the success has come even faster than was anticipated.

An important advantage is the unexcelled car service. Beverly Hills is now reached by the Santa Monica line via Sawtelle, Westgate line and Hollywood through line, while the Harriman subway will bring it within 15 minutes of the business center.

Beverly is to have the finest sewer system that money can procure, something that the better parts of Los Angeles cannot boast of. A water system, gas and electricity, superior to those of Los Angeles, are being planned for immediate installation.

In plain words, Beverly Hills is a fairy-land of art and culture set discreetly beyond the taint of commerce—a subdivision so luxurious that sections of Los Angeles which were once pointed out with pride now appear tame and provincial—almost "shopworn."

Call or send for descriptive booklet telling you more about Beverly.

WALL STREET INTERESTS.

MORE activity was apparent in the local stock market Thursday, the morning session being characterized by the preceding session of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. Trading, however, was limited to but four securities, and prices were fractionally lower. Considerable interest, and anxiety, was manifested in the panicky condition prevailing in Wall Street. Reports of the private wires were eagerly watched, and more attention seemed to be paid to them than to the local stock list.
